Bring books for our book swap!

All are invited to take part in our Holiday Book Swap - take a book or two home to delight in over the holidays. All books donated by HHCH supporters.

Join local author and poet, Peter Taylor for an evening of reading enjoyment. Peter will read select poems from his newly published book "Cities Within Us". Poetry provides many people with a way to reflect and make sense of the world around us, evoking thought-provoking ideas and experiences for the listener. Peter will host a casual Q & A session after the reading.

Cities Within Us offers poems that are dense and deep with language that resonates at multiple levels and often startles with its juxtapositions and verbal explosions. From the intimately personal to the dramatically confessional, Peter Taylor's poems in Cities Within Us capture a purse-seine of discordant voices.
